Anna Rauh graduated in May from Butler University with a B.A. in Strategic Communication with a concentration in Public Relations, and a minor in Art + Design. Anna joined the IWL team in August 2016 as the Marketing and Communications Intern.

In the past, Anna has interned with Kentucky Refugee Ministries in Louisville during their summer children's programming, and with the Center for Faith and Vocation at Butler University as the communications intern. Through these internships she was responsible for assisting with event planning, facilitating discussions among students and faculty, creating promotional content, and managing social media and other channels of communication.

Throughout her time at Butler, Anna was involved with several organizations on campus and had multiple jobs on and off campus as well. She has served as a student leader for the Ambassadors of Change pre-welcome week service program at Butler every year, served as the Membership Committee Director for Butler University Student Foundation, and is served for two years as social chair for the Alpha Chi chapter of Alpha Chi Omega sorority. Anna has worked for the past year as a Butler Student Ambassador for the Office of Admissions, and has worked on and off for the Office of Alumni as a student assistant.

During the Fall 2015 semester, Anna studied abroad in Barcelona, Spain, where she lived with a host family and studied Spanish language, art and culture, as well as having the opportunity to travel around Spain and the rest of Europe. In her lifetime, she has traveled to twelve countries outside of the U.S. and she plans on continuing her travels in the future. In addition to traveling, Anna enjoys painting, dancing, kayaking, and volunteering in her free time.

Anna feels that as a young woman entering the workforce, she relates closely to the values and mission of Integrating Woman Leaders Foundation, and she enjoys combining her passions and her education in the work she does here.

Anna's personal brand tagline: A thoughtful relationship builder who uses enthusiasm, openness and integrity in her drive to serve others.
