INDIANAPOLIS (August 12, 2013) – Integrating Woman Leaders (IWL) announces keynote speaker, Vicki Perry, President and CEO of Advantage Healthcare, and closing speaker, Marc Gibeley, head of Roche's Diabetes Care for North America, for the 4th annual Women's Leadership Conference at the Indianapolis Marriott Downtown on Tuesday, September 24, 2013.

IWL's annual Women's Leadership Conference is the largest of its kind in Indianapolis, last year attended by 530 men and women. The “Brand You” conference focuses on personal branding and encourages individuals to take charge of their own careers. The event is designed to enhance professional leadership skills, improve communication and build stronger networks to achieve results.

Attendees will hear from highly accomplished and inspiring speakers about how each has navigated their career and developed their personal brand. Eleven featured breakout sessions concentrate on helping women define, declare and build their own personal brand. Each interactive session is crafted uniquely for different topics including presentations skills, communication and leadership skills, networking, work-life balance and leadership behaviors.

Registration is limited and early sign-up is highly recommended. Organizations may also reserve a table of 10 at a reduced price and become a table sponsor for the event. Last year's conference included 94 companies from across the state of Indiana.
